Thread: You wake up and find Hackforums tattooed across your arm. Whats the story?

So tomorrow you wake up and you have a new tattoo..

You got Hackforums tattooed on your arm. What would be YOUR story behind that adventure.
Drunken mistake? Happy accident?

Story would be Omni sent me $500 BTC + the tattoo price
Then I would do it

So a drunken night out with Omni downing some whiskey (idk why but I see Omni being a whiskey guy) and you end up with a tattoo ?

Haha, no, haven't asked him if he wants to send me $800 - 900 to get Hackforums tattooed lmao

Since I already have most of my body tattooed, one more wouldn't do any damage, for sure!

Tbh sounds like one hell of a PR deal for Hackforums! I would ask him when he's in a good mood.
Just be ready to get tattooed first & get paid after.

I swear many years back someone did this exact thing they went and got a tattoo of the HF logo I believe and got paid a few bucks to get it in the end. I can't seem to find the exact thread but it was a thing many years ago, I guess it might have been deleted these days due to HF changes.

Honestly no chance of me ever doing a tattoo for anything right now ? but if that ever happened, it would just mean I went completely crazy about Hackforums. For now, I'll stick to learning and contributing the best I can without the ink

Id say "Aw, shit... I started back on that damn dope again."

That's a pretty low price to sell your arm space for.

I'm not worried about it to be honest.

Just ink. It's not like it's something perverted.

It was to get the tattoo gun award from omni. It was the only way to receive it.

A drunken mistake that happens to be a happy accident.

That's what I was thinking! Look HF is great and all but I would never tattoo a brand on me. At least not for $500.

Half a million? I would def think about it! xD

Hold up, there was an actual award you could only get if you got HF tattooed on you?
