What's everyone's preference? Do you keep your phone on silent/vibrate 24/7 or do you keep it on ringer?

Thats smart! Loud and dnd so only the important calls come through and you hear it, everyone else goes straight to VM. Love it. Sounds similar to the autohangup on unknown caller feature on iphones

Thats what I do as well! Cant stand loud phones. I also have a smart watch which helps me get my notifications and calls

Definitely loud, especially since when I'm doing something, I often listen to something in the background and sometimes don't hear the phone ring.

Silent 24/7. I can hear the buzz, but I find a ring obnoxious.

My phone is always on ringer.

I like knowing immediately when someone needs me, even if it is annoying.

My phone is never on silent unless I'm in a movie.

Aeowulf - October 4, 2025, 9:19 am

I can't even hear it when it goes off half the time, but I keep it as loud as I can.

Laughing Man - October 4, 2025, 9:20 am
