I was raised in the countryside with no internet and only had a landline phone. Hell, the only television channels we had were the free channels(~8-9?). I've got plenty of books to keep me occupied for 24 hours.

I would and have lol. Still not enjoyable by any means. If it was a month or a year, I would survive but I would be miserable.

Yes would not be a problem.

No problem. I would spend time with family or friends.

Yes , i survived 37 days in the wilds with around 9 of my friends , but the food was the problem , we had food enough for 30 days only .. We were like in our early 20ish ..
