Thread: The Pyramids ... Aliens ?? Or ??

Lowkey - October 4, 2025, 12:00 pm

Do people honestly think aliens built the pyramids?

Was there no other technology or explanation available?

Seems a little far-fetched.

What do you think?

leste - October 4, 2025, 12:05 pm

It seems ridiculous to believe that.

Very insightful, could you elaborate on that statement?

Beherit built the pyramids

I did hear somewhere that this is true - however, let's hope not.

Just imagine

Jamika - October 5, 2025, 12:24 am

Don't talk like this about our pyramids ok ?

Just kidding

Why don't people believe its by normal people? There is many temples also here sharn - October 5, 2025, 2:11 am

People like mysteries, so they jump to aliens.
Humans built it with math and muscle.

There is a lot of strange things about them, god knows who built them, how old they are and what purpose they had. I find the weirdest the way the stones are cut with such precision even though supposedly we shouldn't have had any tools even close to doing that.

The more weird history things I get into, the more I get the feeling that we were a lot more advanced with technology and such 1000s of years ago and maybe traces of it just is mostly lost.

I don't think aliens built the pyramids at all. The Bible says in Exodus 1:14 that the Israelites were forced into hard labor by the Egyptians. I believe it was their manpower that made it possible.

Lowkey - October 5, 2025, 8:59 am

Nah I just looked it up, definitely built by aliens folks sorry.

Wow hank you for the thread response.

Yin Yang - October 7, 2025, 6:35 pm

Nah it wasn't aliens, they had wheels and got whipped

Mech - October 7, 2025, 6:51 pm

Previous advanced civilizations prior to them nuking the planet and destroying most of life on earth.

My conspiracy theorist coworker says that the ancient Egyptians were able to use the moon and the sun to harness the ability to bend gravity and that's how they built the pyramids.

I think they used magic.

RangoWorld - October 9, 2025, 5:29 am

If not aliens then I believe that people back then had a technology of sorts that allowed them to lift such heavy pieces of blocks.

lonneee - October 9, 2025, 12:45 pm

is the earth flat?

They should have harvested a longer lasting empire lol.

I am hundred percent sure in my opinion that where build by aliens and not humans

I see a documentary on discovery and the sistem build in the top of them its to sincronize with the solar system

So the only way to build them its for someone to look from space to be able to build them

plops - October 10, 2025, 11:08 am

The aliens did not build it. We did. We were their slaves. They banded a bunch of monkies to make us. Then tricked us into building it.

Aeowulf - October 10, 2025, 12:03 pm

Just a lot of people, working for some rich guys.

itcorp - October 10, 2025, 5:09 pm

Whether it was aliens or an advanced civilization that wiped itself out through history, there are still facts that show that with today's technology and tools we cannot process the material with the precision that was processed in that period and with the tools available at that time.

Yeah I wonder how they got all them big blocks on top each other.

They probably took a bunch of steroids.

Meth built the pyramids.

I wouldn't be surprised if the whole concept of God and angels are really just aliens that came from the sky and the humans just conflate them with Gods. It actually makes sense too lol wouldn't be surprised. Even the natives referred to these beings as "sky people"

I'd love to think that too.

It is like 3I/Atlas, some folks think its an alien. We all want to think humanity is special. We are not. We are just a piece of the earth puzzle. Just a bunch of social and combative monkies.

If aliens passed by, we are ants. Not typical red ants to be fair. But they would see termites and ants passing by each other. With each side holding a defense line against the other march. Like we see here on earth.

We are not special, but we can become special. Or we die out like every other species.

DAL-SHA - October 19, 2025, 12:06 am i dont believe in aliens , but building the pyramids have costed many slaves' lives !
