Thread: Where Would You Be If You Could Teleport?

If I could teleport anywhere right now, I'd go to Japan.
My favorite artist lives there, and I'd love to see them in person — even just for a few minutes.
Where would you go if you could teleport instantly?

Right into area 51. Give myself a self guided tour, get caught trick them into thinking I walked right in. Get that security fired. Teleport home.

I've just remember the movie Jumper lmao. But for me, if I could teleport I'd go to Switzerland to enjoy the calm and gorgeous landscapes. It seems like a perfect escape.

I'd definitely teleport somewhere where no man has ever been. Not sure where but where ever it is I'd definitely go there.
