The most terrifying dream for you guys should be being chased and hunted, right?

well , the worst kind of dream is when everything feels real but you're completely powerless, like trying to scream and nothing comes out.?

I have had this dream so many times that I have become accustomed to it, but my body still shivers every time I wake up from it ?

The scariest dream is that I am being chased by a ghost.

Probably one of those new parents dreams about your kids dying.

I was in a plane slowly crashing.

There was no escape, only impending doom.

I was in a back yard with some people I didn't know, but I knew somehow that they wouldn't let me leave.

They brought out a bride in a bridal gown with a veil covering her face and they set her on fire and as she was burning they told me they were going to cut off my feet and then I woke up.

I never normally have dreams like that and I was only 19 when I randomly had that dream.

Try being a regular THC user, I'm talking years worth of regular consistent use, and just cold turkey stopping it and trying to sleep. After about 2 days after quitting, worst night terrors you've ever seen Someone came onto my street at night time while I was outside. I saw him underneath the street light, walking down the middle of the street and he start shooting at me from up the slope.
