If you could instantly master any language, which one would it be?
I would choose Spanish to make trips easier in multiple countries.

Honestly, I'd master sarcasm first... but if we're talking real languages, probably Japanese!

Either Spanish or Japanese/Chinese, but I think I'd learn more into Japanese/Chinese since the reality that I learn either of those in my lifetime is close to 0%.

Walter - October 23, 2025, 8:38 am

Russian is good.

onlineuser | D3RFER - October 23, 2025, 10:30 am

I would go with Spanish anytime.

I'd probably pick Japanese — it just sounds so smooth, and I'd love to dive into their culture without subtitles.

Spanish can come in handy if I get captured by a drug cartel, and a need arise to explain why they shouldn't decapitate me. ?

Seriously, I think German would be interesting. Das ist gut. ??

DAL-SHA - October 23, 2025, 11:48 am
