Thread: MAXIMUM SECURITY UPLOAD - Can you HACK IT? \$20 XMR

Rsynced - October 14, 2025, 12:22 pm

I coded this website from scratch using AI. I am fully confident in my coding and security skills now. The website is coded in 'PURE' PHP / Apache / html and uses WordPress core functions.

I do not think anyone can get past my security. Fair warning, EVERYTHING IS LOGGED AND MY WEBSITE COULD BE CONSIDERED A HONEY POT! I have this posted, so please do not claim I am trying to DOX. You agree to these terms by visiting my website: <https://openfile.top>

Paying $20 XMR bounty if you can get past my security / hack my website. This is self explanatory. I know you can't prove me wrong?

DramaKing - October 14, 2025, 1:22 pm

That looks ... um ... very secure. I wouldn't dare try to hack a MaxSecurityUploader.

Joel - October 14, 2025, 1:25 pm

What if I upload illegal content and submit it to the FBI, how secure is it then?

Great OPSEC bro, you do realize you just got yourself involved with an investigation if a scenario like this plays out in the future n00b.

I'll point them to the AI CP you were generating before and when you panic removed the thread after multiple people pointed out the age of those girls were just a 'bit too young' ?

Bro's sus as hell, and you haven't done/created anything. AI made it for you, AI is notoriously bad for having vulnerabilities. Regardless of how many times you re-prompt it asking it to fix it.

Too bad it's AI and not REAL. THE PEOPLE DO NOT EXIST. PLUS NOTHING PRON RELATED. YOU ARE 'delusional' AND WILL SAY ANYTHING TO PISS ME OFF. IT'S NOT WORKING BUDDY, YOUR DONE.

Quote:The term "delusional" refers to a state of holding a fixed, false belief that is contrary to reality despite evidence to the contrary. It can describe a symptom of a mental health disorder like delusional disorder, where the belief is persistent and not obviously bizarre, or be used informally to mean someone is holding an unrealistic or irrational idea.

Ah yes, seems to be quite common recently, the use of AI and denying its full responsibility for "your" created content.

Coded it from "scratch" with AI.

Yes I coded it from scratch using AI. I know PHP too. Please make your own openfile.top using AI and let me know how it goes?

Btw, I Just Enabled 'Cloudflare' TODAY, so there is now a 99.9% chance it's just not happening. Considering there was previously NO EXTRA FIREWALL enabled at time of my OP. Now it is proxied through cloudflare w/ DOS protection and other shields Enabled.

Look im not even here for the drama, But ill offer my 2 cents,

We live in a world where everything works by a general consensus, For an example, You commit a driving offence, We look at the burden as being "Would a reasonable driver have found that dangerous" etc, The point im making is, If the general consensus is that you posted images of girls generated using AI which had a sexual undertone, Then i have to say that's not a health thing to do.

"Too bad it's AI and not REAL"

This is also a crazy stance to take, Are you saying that in this case CP would be fine if it's AI generated?

Sometimes just because there isn't a victim doesn't mean that the act itself isn't so morally incomprehensible that it in itself is illegal. This is why not only is CP illegal, Pornography is also given categories, If you create images depicting certain things, It would fall into an illegal category and is an offense within itself.

Here's the key point, And i'm being careful not to label you as someone with pedophilic tendencies,

However if your generating images and you stand by what you said above, Perhaps speak with someone, Take some time off the internet and address the core issues.
(I say that with kindness)

Also your website is really bad,

Have a look at /robots.txt

If you don't see the issue that's a problem in itself xD

Thing is a fortress! Nothing yet, I do not think it is going to happen unless someone finds a 0-day exploit in PHP or Apache itself.
