Thread: Anyone else kind of plan on grinding out the award very late into October?

I've got some irl problems and I don't feel like grinding for it too much, on the other hand I've already gotten all the previous awards so I'm not gonna let this one slip out of my hands. I feel like I'll just grind it out towards the end of the month. Anyone else doing the same?

I'm trying to get this finished this weekend. I am hoping to have Stanley Fan award finished by the end of the month. I've been so busy it's been hard to participate this year.

Yeah i feel you i have been grinding the award every night mainly because i am up all night and its my free time. busy during the day with different projects and errands so i just post when i can.... set a goal of x/posts per day and you will achieve it much easier

I had some momentum and time earlier which allowed me to be active for long. Now I have like 20% progress left to make.

I'm not in a hurry. When it comes, it comes. It won't too much long
