Thread: 1.6m bytes will go to waste

Eran - October 16, 2025, 3:56 am

Over 1.6m bytes will go to waste if this user does not log in until December 29th. (If someone is inactive for a year, their bytes balance go to 0)

G-EZE will be back before the 29th of December and will rain those bytes on us. He will give me 200k, hahaha just wishing.

Comeback G-EZE the world needs you before the year ends

Aeowulf - October 16, 2025, 6:12 am

That would be great for the bytes economy, and for DemonAsylum. That would suck for that guy if he ever does come back though.

onlineuser | D3RFER - October 16, 2025, 6:37 am

Stuff like this makes me so extremely curious.

Like what happened.

Did buddy get visited by the feds, did something awful happen to him, so many possibilities.

diablospartan - October 16, 2025, 7:36 am

Well how its posible for someone to make 1 milion bytes ? He won the lotery ? :))))

Hackers - October 16, 2025, 8:16 am sheesh... uh...

Where are they??

It looks like they bought a ton from Demon back on Dec 4, 2024 and did a lot of flips, received a lot of rain, etc.

That's a hefty amount to just leave sittin'

I'm assuming something happened to them, or they really just don't need the money.

For some I guess this is chump change that can be forgotten or left behind

DAL-SHA - October 16, 2025, 8:20 am

1.6 mill ?

WOW ...

i think they should be stored for a bit more ...?

Rahul007rhp - October 16, 2025, 8:39 am

Hope he comes back before that , it would be sad to see those bytes go down in drain.

Comeback G-EZE and rain some bytes on us xD

He won 1m bytes from a $100 scratchcard during a buy 1 get 1 free sale during HF's black friday deal.

I believe Money- also won 1m bytes once during that same deal.

It appears he was only active for 1 month, from December 3rd, to December 29th. The bytes probably didn't mean much to him. What may excite one man, can be like a breeze in the wind to the next man. Must be nice. More power to him, hope life is treating him well.
