Aeowulf - October 17, 2025, 4:12 am

Keep the tradition of a discussion thread for each post of the day alive (like <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6272480>), I now present you the Friday Free For All.

So come on in Yanix Deany jcole Fish - the water is lukewarm at best.

I know there's more of you, but you were the ones on the last page in that thread. ?

It's usually like that down here, we could've told you about all your problems, but we actively seek violence.

Just remember that when you go to sleep. :)

Nope. The stuff I've been wanting and watching, has already doubled and tripled in price so they can put it on "sale." ? I'll wait until January.

I recently bought an item from AliExpress with their 11.11 sale. They still do seem to run good discount on some stuff. Though delivery takes a bit of time. Still worth it.

Will it arrive before or after Easter?

It was to be arrived today. But the guy who was about to deliver, rescheduled the delivery because I didn't answered his call ?

I'm like, just knock the door man. Why you need an answer on phone first.

I couldn't complete a 100% of it. But I did around 80%. So today it'll just be minimal work.

Curious why I was summoned by the co-owner of the forum the other week on my night off ?

RangoWorld - December 12, 2025, 12:35 pm

I hope everyone's having or had a great Friday. I often think Friday sets the tone for the weekend. It's better to force yourself to be more active this day and plan your weekend ahead.
