I'm with you, Suits is great! Harvey's a legend, but I gotta say Mike Ross is my favorite. Dude's quick thinking is unmatched.

Supernatural is nostalgic.

Dean Winchester's humor makes the show.

It's very sad that the ending of the series was so brazenly and shamelessly cut short. The guy avoided death in fantastic ways his whole life, and here it ended so stupidly ( I completely agree with you overall).

The Witcher was an awesome series and so was the main character the Witcher. Also loved Game of Thrones especially Jon Snow and the young girl who killed the ice king or whatever his name was.
