Thread: Worst restaurant experience

I usually enjoy trying new restaurants, but one visit ruined my night.
The waiter ignored us for 20 minutes. Food arrived cold and tasteless.

Have you ever spent a lot for terrible food?

Sir , i encountered such thing many times ..

But , did you at least ask for the manager or the owner and pointed this thing out ??

Or the restaurant isn't important to you and you were just walking in to try it and you will never go inside again ???

This one time I went to eat at Longhorn steakhouse and just had the absolutely worst experience fucking ever. The food was terrible and the service just as bad. Never went back again. Texas roadhouse is much better

He were rude and did not take it seriously.
