Oh gosh it is 11th of November of the year 2025. The clock is 13.38 UTC+2 here in Finland

The weather is mildly cold and there is a likely chance of rain in the coming hours. Now there is also a high probability of snow in the coming weeks.

As the temperature is slowly crawling to freezing. Which means this year there is a good chance we will be having snow on Christmas eve.

Checking in for the first time in ages, tons has once more happened...

- My father died and left a huge mess for me to clean up, still working on this...

- Almost got stuck out at open sea on the dark while transferring my boat from one harbor to an other. Engine issues is a bitch...

- Totaled one of my cars and got some less nice back pain now (no other injuries). It was some game that came from the left to the right on the motorway at a place where the street light was out, just that one pillar was dark and well, no chance in hell to avoid it when I finally saw it.

- Hunted down and bought a replacement car in less than 2 weeks, same make n model even tho it's still a slight upgrade.

...and some other "minor" things when compared to the shit above...

Just take up shitposting you get some bytes here, bytes there.
Or you go to bet them on various things.

Then again not giving away bytes could be smart.

The 100 I had on an underdog, yes.

I have another one going on now, haven't thought to check results / if it's still on.

I have 50 bytes on Atlanta Hawks @ Washington Wizards, I bet on Wizards, at +418, with 6:30~ left on the Q4 Clock, Wizards are up 128 - 99.

Here's hoping they can't LeBron it back all the way to a win otherwise I will get some nice bytes. Yay.

Nice final score Wizards 132 Hawks 113. I get some byteeeees

The snow zombies are becoming more restless. They seem to sense more of the minimal heat radiating from layered clothing. This is bad. Someone must notify the Arbiter. I would go myself but my ankle has yet to heal from last night's encounter with those damned cannibals! Atleast I escaped intact but at the cost of stranding myself miles away from base...I need to find another hiding spot, I can hear the low growls closer and closer each night.

It is FRIDAY the 5th of December.

The time is 07:11am UTC+2

The weather is as usual, and you might already know.

It is Bleak, dark, wet and cold.

Also tomorrow we will be celebrating one of the most anticipated days of my country. independence day. Which means a huge portion of our population gather around the television to watch a GOD DAMN line of people shaking hands for an hour or two. While two people comment on the guests outfits. Could you imagine yourself watching that? Cuz I could and matter a fact I WILL.

Good Evening HF!

Today is the 11th of December.

The time is 21:06 or 9:06pm for you yankees.

The weather is nice for a bit and for tomorrow,
they promised us some sunshine for the first time in months.

Anyway, remember to stay safe, and stay curious.

Nope. Just the normal amount you get for posting sadly. This post is made for people that still enjoy checking in daily and promotes daily activity.

Honestly I'm not sure what I was doing Jan 1st... Probably high as hell or passed out. Either way, it's been awhile since I've been around. I like to come back every now and again to check up on the site. It's always nice to see old familiar names.

Checking in while being completely mindfucked...I have had a dream several times where I, my better half and kiddo have been sitting in a plane on the right side just behind the wing...and crashed. Tomorrow we are going on a vacation and it just so happens that we got those exact seats allocated to us by random for the flight tomorrow. So if a plane comes down somewhere in EU tomorrow, well, then I'm gone I guess...

Good afternoon HF!

Today is Monday 23rd of February.

The time is 14.04pm UTC+2 here in Finland

Nothing major to note. Except we got even more snow (What a shocker!)
But now to the important news regarding Finland.

Right after midnight when the day turns to Tuesday.
Finland has officially been independent for 39 526 days.
It means that tomorrow we have been independent for longer, than we were under the ownership of Russia during 1809 to 1917

So it is expected that we Finns will celebrate this milestone somehow.

That's all for you folks for today.

Remember to stay safe and stay curious.

Absolutely beautiful morning HF!

Today on the 24th of February 2026.

The clock is 07.30am UTC+2

Is officially the day! The 39 527th day to be exact. Of Finnish independence.
Which means we have now been free and independent for longer than we were under Russian rule.
We were part of Russia from 1809 until 1917.

This is a huge deal for some Finnish people and I can not blame them.

But now for the weather. It is cold, -10°C which is not that bad but the wind makes it feel so much worse.

There has not been any snowfall as of late, but oh boy more will come.

That's all folks, remember to stay safe and stay curious.

Good Morning HF!

Today is Friday, the 27th of February 2026.

Today has not been eventful, but the weather. Oh boy.

This morning there has been a lot of rain, and no not snow but water.

Which has made the roads and a lot of the yards of housing complexes extremely slippery.

I myself slipped 2 times while walking to my car. Not fun, but this just means that the spring and summer is upon us.

We just have to wish and hope it arrives soon. And that no more freezing weather comes.

Good Morning HF!

Today is the 2nd of March 2026

Today the weather in the morning was moderately good. Not too cold.

The roads were pretty wet but not slippery. That being said tomorrow could be cold, every weather station is warning that it might be extremely windy and thus make the roads slippery.

That's all folks.

Stay safe and stay curious.

Good Morning HF!

Today is the 4th of March 2026.

I have been somewhat busy with other things so unfortunately I have not checked in for few days.

That is about to change, because this morning we had yet again very slippery roads. But spring is coming and it is closing in fast.

A lot of the snow we got last week has already been smelting away, the roads are mostly in good condition to drive a bit faster.

But the thing that has caught my ear the most is that some of the spring birds are starting to sing in the morning. And oh boy oh boy do they sound refreshing.

That's all folks.

Stay safe and stay curious. Bye.

Good Morning HF!

Today is the 6th of March 2026.

This morning was weird, to say the least. It was -2.5°C (27.5°F)

But it all felt warm, but my cars windows were all in ice. Had to scrape that shit off, and again I was in a hurry to get to work. (What a shocker)

But the roads were dry, and not slippery. My car was going comfortably at 140km/h in the highway. We are expecting a very small amount of snow fall during the weekend, but that could change within the hour.

Also the weather man said something about strong gusts of wind being possible, making it feel much colder than it really is. Well we will see.

That's all folks.

Stay safe and stay curious.

Today is the 9th of March 2026

This morning was colder than I could have guessed, my car windows were all covered in ice. Again, but that is not what was bothering me this morning, it was the absolute brain farts of the other people who were driving.

Way way fast and with no regard of the weather and the fact that the roads are icy as shit in the morning.

I saw a crash happen on the opposite lane of the highway. So please for the love of god. Drive safely.

Good Morning HF!

Today is the 12th of March 2026.

This morning was weird I got to work early. And it feels weird.

The weather is also bit dull at the moment, grey, wet, depressing.

But there is a silver lining in it. All the snow is melting extra fast because of the rain.

We just need to hope that we do not get anymore -°C weather during night, because then it will be a slippery slope.

That's all folks.

IM BACK!

Good Morning HF!

Today is 1st of April 2026.

April fools day!

So you never know if this is just a April fools prank or nah.

But let's be serious now for a sec.

I have not been posting for some time now due to recent developments in my personal life.

Some good others not so.

Good news, me and my partner finally got our house back to ourself. (My in-laws were living under our roof.)

So now we got the whole house. We can finally start to make our gaming room etc.

The bad news, I have stressed so damn long that I have just been tired all day every day. And due to my in-laws being alcoholics they decided to smoke in the house, so now the cleaning is our next big hurdle. Trying to get all the nicotine and tar off the walls and windows. It is luckily possible, but extremely hard to get it all out. After that we have to get paint and start all our due projects in the house. Kitchen, Livingroom, Gaming room, and our bedroom. All will be done. I even might make a post about the project. uploading some before and after photos when we are done with it.

But now for the weather.

Today was colder than normal in the morning, my cars windshield was frozen. Not to bad but still, the roads were not in a bad condition taking in the fact that it was 0.5°C (32.9°F)

The weather is bleak and grey, which does not bother me that much.

Anyway that is all for today.

Stay safe and stay curious.

Good Morning HF!

Today is the 2nd of April 2026.

So some of us got fooled yesterday.

I sure did by my girlfriend.

But today's weather. The morning was as cold as usual at this time of year.

My car windows were covered in ice once again. The roads were bit more slippery than normal, and unfortunately I did see two car crashes on my way to work. But the silver lining is that no casualties.

Both had crashed to the divider wall of the highway, and EMS were attending them.

Note that these happened about 10km of each other.

Other than that the morning was peaceful and good.

Stay safe and stay curious.

Looking for a good bulk sms sender and a phishing page maker to work with. I can provide phone numbers and emails of the victims. I also have several ways in which we can cash out cards and bank account with online access....if you have cards with or without otp. I have an otp grabber that allows me to call them with there bank number to get the codes...DM me asap. Do not waste my time if you are good at this lets make money....we split 50/50
