Thread: Grand Theft Auto VI is Now Set to Launch November 19, 2026

?inimalist - November 6, 2025, 1:32 pm

Hi everyone,

Grand Theft Auto VI will now release on Thursday, November 19, 2026.

We are sorry for adding additional time to what we realize has been a long wait, but these extra months will allow us to finish the game with the level of polish you have come to expect and deserve.

We want to thank you again for your patience and support. While the wait is a little longer, we are incredibly excited for players to experience the sprawling state of Leonida and a return to modern day Vice City.

Sincerely,

Rockstar Games

Wild. i just really hope its as good as they are making it out to be.

I expected this, GTA V was also delayed twice, and the 1st delay had it set for earlier in the year with an eventual 2nd delay to later in the year.

RIP Call of Duty though, that is like a week after their usual launch window. I wouldn't be surprised if CoD: CopynPaste2026 launches in October to avoid competing with GTA VI.

Hearing it's because of the recent firings and unionization

Makes me so mad especially since GTA is my favorite series and i was looking forward playing it soon.... oh well at least i have bo7 this month. lets hope that game is good.... beta was alright

Another delay? Seriously? It's been over a decade since GTA V, at this point it's starting to feel like a joke. Every time they hype it up and push it back again. November 2026 better be final, because patience is running on fumes.

maybe someday we will get to play GTA VI... next year itll move to 2027

They did the same thing with RDR2.

Plus the PC version came a year later. Safe to say GTAVI on PC will come in 2027.

Definitely could be, just a few changes in personnel can really mess up a timeline

It feels like they were rushing to get it out to please people, and over estimated the release because 6 months is a lot.
