I'm looking for an active telegram group based around social engineering. Call/SMS spoofing. Email spoofing. Website cloning Etc. I cannot find much info of this on this forum. I need a group that's willing to work together to achieve our individual goals. I do not want to say much more than that on here but if you understand what I mean Let me Know. Thanks ?

Well these are tools of the trade, its not the trade itself. Social engineering isn't a skillset you can half ass and expect results. Its very involved.

You're looking for a group of people of similar work?

Join a crew. There aren't any specifically for social engineering, but some have active chats.

Hey, if you can't find one then perhaps we can make one? There are a bunch of people here who'd be interested in such a group. Not just for learning, but working together towards goals and schemes we couldn't achieve alone. What do you think?
