This is just buying them at face value on the market?

Yes, correctly. Youpin or buff, I simply withdraw for you from that market directly to your steam + my fee. Usually chinese markets are way cheaper, sometimes even 10s of % cheaper than western / US markets. ?

Maybe instead of 3rd post now, try to dm, tell me what exactly are you looking for, what's your payment method. If you wish cheapest option or you only have tradelink, no buff163 account (free for anyone) etc... maybe idk, one dm instead of xth post would solve it.

Price is changing every second, no need to send you price now when you reply in week when price could be hundreds $ off up or down. Let me know :).

I'm not asking you to do business publicly, everything is under a private contract anyhow. I reached out to you a week ago, and you made no attempt at contacting me.
