Thread: Favorite HF Users & Why - Shoutouts and Compliments <3

Hackers - November 25, 2025, 7:34 am

Who are your favorite HF users and why?

7 because he is like me, always brainstorming and doing things with his ideas. Inspirational on a daily or weekly basis.

sector because of astronomy, space, physics, science

Tyr because of fun topics, WoW, more

CL1B because I love a good debate about tech & he knows his server setups

MadScientist is fun to chat with about a number of topics and he is always learning

flyingduck for tech, automations, and finance

T3n for good chats, he seems like an open and cool guy

Nightmare for Telegram, business marketing, and more

HerrWinston who I don't know as much yet, but enjoy talking to in convo.php

itcorp for hard work, dedication, and intelligence

Rsynced for an undying passion, custom builds, and trying to help the world & internet as a whole

@The Pact@ for being cool to talk to, reasonable, and all around interesting user that I only just met

Omniscient for putting up with us, obviously :)

@Charlie Sheen@ , very smart user with lots of experience & stories

Wilmer and i have had some good chats recently

DemonAsylum might as well be baked into cached HTML/CSS files at this point with his online time
~~ he's a very reliable and trustworthy user

jcole - we disagreed and argued about stuff, but I like that you don't hold resentments and actually participate in good faith arguments that are based on the topic, not the poster.

This is not a comprehensive list by any means.

JoshAllen - November 25, 2025, 8:35 am

Mix He does so much around here and deserves to be appreciated.

Deany - November 25, 2025, 8:41 am

Deany my favorite user

I should have shouted him out!! I did add a few more to OP, there are too many good users to only tag 1

Mix for the work he's doing with news, wiki, or related projects.

Vectura - I gave him the Earthling award for his work on the translations system he came up with, and the HF Dash

(Nov 25, 2025 09:41 AM)Deany Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Deany my favorite user

I tend to concur with you Deany, Deany is indeed the dean of school here, the principle of HF but subservient to Admin if you will.

Too cool for school

woops, I tagged sittingduck instead of flyingduck above in OP :O

HerrWinston - November 25, 2025, 8:59 am good questionnn, i have a number of people i really enjoy talking to well there is you, because its always interesting to read your texts about literally anything, from astronomy to religion to politics to tech then CL1B - enjoying talking to him very much, always good advices on life and general :)

flyingduck - enjoying talking to him and shares many good ideas

@sigma boss@ - its always fun to chat with him and see what he is up to (never the same thing)

MadScientist because he is often in convo and always chill

Mix very hq user, really pushes the forum

itcorp my gambling bud :D

I am 100% sure this isnt everyone but yall came to mind instantly :)

In general the whole convo gang is high in this list :D

But really deciding on one member is pretty much impossible for me if i HAD to choose one then it might be CL1B :)

Nice, great list! I just updated thread title to be less about picking 1 user, and more about shouting out multiple w/ compliments :)

This thread made me think of another list we could do... Capabilities list. A general list of users and their top 1-3 topics that they are experts at. This can help people know who to reach out to for support or general discussions about shared interests... without it being a marketplace advert.

I really like the idea, but would this be like a self advert type of thing? like experts making the post about themselves in the thread or more like you make a quick comprehensive list of users and others can link in if they want to? :)

HerrWinston you are too kind. Thank you pal.

CL1B - November 25, 2025, 10:15 am

Thank you for the kind words Hackers HerrWinston

I agree with Winston, my favorites members are all of those who actively chat in convo.

But for the sake of handing out flowers:

ttbr0 - Advanced dev talks, before chatting with ttbr0 I had these in my head; Now I can share my thoughts with this guy and 5/10 times it ends in a 1 hour brainstorm/chat which does so much more for me than guy can imagine.

7 - If you ever watched the show Breaking Bad, my interactions with 7 feels like interacting with Tuco from that show. Something that is both funny and dangerous at the same time. + A seemingly good father. Love it.

6 - I believe Omni once wrote somewhere: You don't know who 6 is? Dubai kid throwing money?! I love that. Great guy but sadly, don't interact that often anymore.

Bastille - I admire your passion

HerrWinston - A keeper, perfect addition to any vibe. Young but eager to learn. Will blindly defend you whenever needed, which I admire.

@Poisonleaf@ - The only good looking person on HF.

Yakless - We have keep each other grounded when needed, I appreciate that.

@Charlie Sheen@ - This guy is everything but him. But I like him.

T3n - Honest and open minded guy; Shares and listens which then leads to new experiencess/lessons. Genuinely hope you grow as much as you possibly can in life.

G33K - Inspiring guy by default.

Oh_Well - This guy is always thinking of some form of a community event, I recognize and admire your passion.

almost forgot DemonAsylum - Simply the best.

Every day im shuffling

[Video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KQ6zr6kCPj8>]

No sometimes im just using an application that way outdated and shit and think why am i using this? why would people be downloading this... why would I pay for premium feature that is so basic now.. So I create a new one. Gerenerally I can create something better in a few hours. Almost 0 cost. I don't do this for profit.. I do it to grow my thought process and Hackers and I have very similar traits. When I use something thats cool, I dont think its the limit, I think it's the beginning.

I really like the users 6 and 7 for obvious reasons.

RangoWorld - November 25, 2025, 11:31 am

I'm relatively new on the forum. I think almost everyone on the forum is a valuable member.

If I had to mention some. If I really do. Then I would mention.

7 , HerrWinston , Jamika , DemonAsylum , Hackers , Bastille , @The Pact@ and Deany

I have enjoyed and found value in their posts.

Thank you brother :) This goes for you too, you're always up for something good and innovative, this passion is rare, hold on to it.

Can't put a list of other members, there are many good people here and I'm glad I get to be a part of this community.

Is there any photos of this.. for personal reasons?

RiveR29 - November 28, 2025, 11:39 am

I have been here for so little time I can't say much.

But what I have witnessed

Tyr For just being a chill dude. They seem to really care about the members of this community.

And

JoshAllen For having a HQ threads where I love to make my dumbass forecasts and morning shouts when ever I just happen to remember :D

Tbh, I have not had any negative interaction yet (I hope I won't have) So yeah, this is just me because I have not been here for that long.
