Thread: Instant Noodles

Since I'm here, I might as well tap into a crucial topic: instant noodles. insert "Wow!!" applause. Ever since starting Uni, InstaNoods have become real food now and I am scared for the future. On the bright side, Indomie exists so I am all cared for lol. I was just wondering what y'all favourite noodle brand is and also if you guys have/ had any struggle meals.

My worst struggle meal was I think a tub of condensed milk, i think. There was nothing to eat okay and it was like 03:00 in the morning.

Have a great day, gents.

Instant noodle will always be favorite whenever im on a budget, which is more often then I like to admit. lulz. I like the cup of soup instant noodles, I believe the band name is maruchan or something along those lines. I like to throw a packet of tuna inside the cup with the noodles, and I am good.

I like the Nissin Foods ????? chicken ramen noodles and also their cup of noodles brand.

That and there's another one that you can buy at a Japanese store. It's chicken and beef noodle black brand.

It has your veggies with chicken and beef and a lot of hot pepper with a lot of salt. It's double the salt of a monster energy drink.

I'm not a big instant noddles guy. Whatever I had it from it. I liked mostly the cheese and carbonara flavors. Brands I liked were Buldok and Indomie

I still need to try Buldok, I have been to scared to try it because my 1 Indian friend said he destroyed a toilet after eating those and I quite like my toilet, lol.

How was your first experience with Buldok tho??
