Ill start this off by saying there isnt anything I wouldnt do. You want a grow business you never want to worry about? Hire me, I will tend to it 24/7. You need something moved across the country? Pm me I can drive it and have social skills to where I can talk my way out of a search. You like shrooms but are tired of worrying if its laced? Hire me, I will grow it in the same place I live as I am that confident in my ability to not get caught as Ive done worse and not been caught. Need your family moved across country but dont trust movers? Hire me, there isnt a single place in the usa i wont drive to. No questions asked im looking for the people who have so much money they have no idea to do with it. I will make your dreams a reality, and that isnt a maybe I WILL. There isnt a single thing I wont do. Let me know if that is you. Id full dox myself just to prove how willing I am to find the partner of my dreams because they dont want to do it themselves. I AM YOUR MAN FOR THE JOB FOR ANYTHING. I am the most loyal person you will meet ive even been shot protecting my friends even though they were in the wrong. He was my friend so I handled what he couldnt. He ended up being fake but if you know you arent fake let me know. Literally open to ANYTHING.
