Hello Everyone,

Welcome to a new thing that I want to try start. We all know about Stanley, he is the guy who likes to share News, Information, and all sorts of wonderful things about this site, he bumps posts for us, acts as our bookie when we want to gamble.

What I find most interesting about him is that he doesn't take the time out of his day for apologizing that he takes our bytes, or that he doesn't actually really contribute, he rides that line between spamming low quality posts, and a contribution.

So, I really want to say just one thing.

Fuck you Stanley

Feel free to share your fond, or not so fond memories about one of our lessor communicative members of the forum, after all, he is a lot like us. He shows up daily, just maybe I think there is a sect of us that would be happy if he gave it up for lent.
