anyone tested this product? i've tried few products here and there, and i always either get scammed, or the product is too expensive for what it is. imo someone should share w us their actual provider lol

Ayena - February 13, 2026, 4:07 pm

Rates seem ok, but $100 monthly. For the casual user, that might be a bit too hefty.

to be fair, i've tried many routes in the past few weeks and the rates in most case dont matter because you could find for usa 0.15/minute and end up realizing that most calls will be filtered by other carriers. (when modifying caller id to a custom one) i've tried more than 10+ providers, spent thousands easily past few weeks.

the only one i found that does it decently is 0.25/minute . but that's expensive on a scale.

still looking for a good one at around 0.15/minute for usa if anyone can find let me know its for a lot of money to come every month.
