

Forum:Hack Forums

Thread: McDonald's Manager Murder trial disrupted after the victim's child brings knife in

The Pact - December 7, 2025, 10:33 am

Prosecutors played surveillance video they say shows the suspect, 26-year-old Afeni Badu Muhammad from Eastpointe, walking into the McDonald's and stabbing and killing her manager, 39-year-old Jennifer Harris of Mt. Clemens, on July 10.

The victim's 17-year-old daughter left the courtroom after seeing the video of her mother's murder. She returned to the court room holding a knife before being tackled by police when she reentered the courthouse.

The daughter was taken into custody. The prosecutor is considering charges. The family was barred from returning to the courtroom for the rest of the hearing.

<https://www.wxyz.com/news/relative-of-victim-in-mcdonalds-fatal-stabbing-returns-to-courthouse-with-knives>

jcole - December 7, 2025, 11:51 am

What is sad is how little life means to some people. Someone willing to kill because they got sent home early for "slacking off"

The Pact - December 12, 2025, 12:19 am

(Dec 7, 2025 12:51 PM)jcole Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) What is sad is how little life means to some people. Someone willing to kill because they got sent home early for "slacking off"

She was sent home early multiple times and lost money because of it and was in the homeless shelter. But she was making YouTube videos in the children's play area while at work playing the recorder. And when the manager tried to talk to her about anything and tapped her on the shoulder her response was, "Get out of my space. I can't talk right now if you don't mind. Don't talk to me. Don't touch me." Um she's your manager?

And she knew the manager was a solo mother with six kids too.

The other thing I don't get is that if she is homeless how does she buy purple contact lenses, a gazillion wigs, a recorder?