All Flash USDT software is fake software intended to steal YOUR crypto.

The entire premise of Flash USDT is created to sound appealing to dumb kids with no hacking or technological skills. Blockchains aren't going to be tricked by a fake token, blockchains verify a lot more than just the name and icon being used, and your token is never going to a contract address collision with the real variation of the coin.

You will never achieve what you hope you're going to achieve with "Flash USDT", OP is the dumb scam victim in this scenario, not whoever he intends on scamming later down the line.

Keep this fake BS out of here.

(For the record, OP is looking for a method to send fake USDT that will be accepted as real USDT for a brief moment of time, not anything to do with Flash Loans, which is its own separate and legitimate topic)
