Thread: My christmas gift to Omni

Cyam - December 19, 2025, 2:48 am

Guys, today marks a very special and emotional day for me.

As Christmas is around the corner, I decided that now is the perfect day to do this. I donated $1,000 to Omni / HF.

This is special to me for two reasons:

- First, I could never have dreamed of casually donating this kind of money without feeling a single bit of regret.
- Second, I can finally give back to the man who indirectly made this possible.

If I hadn't come across HF all those years ago, I would never be where I am right now. All the knowledge and connections I gained on HF lead to where I am now - doing what I love, making solid money, working with clients I never dreamed would be possible.

And although I'm not active on HF anymore, I will always remember it as my starting point! :D

Also, big shoutout to Herion Winds and Trappy

A nice full circle moment.

Happy for you.

Happy Holidays and visit <https://hackforums.net/convo.php?action=all> when you have the chance!

I'm glad to see that this forum has improved the lives of some people. I also think this forum has improved my life, even if I'm less and less active these days, precisely to manage my affairs. ?

That was very awesome of you. Every now and then when I have a little extra I like to purchase a few awards.
