I don't know why she's celebrating, or where she's gonna put the presents

I guess she's got her reasons, but I just don't want to know

'Cause for twenty four years I've been celebrating Christmas

Twenty four years, just waitin' for a gift

To tell her how I got her something, maybe get a second thing

But I'll never get used to not getting her gifts.

Who the fuck is Santa Claus?

... And again from the top.
