Thread: Man Tried to Kill Half Nephews by Leaving Gas Burners on While They Slept

The Pact - December 26, 2025, 6:19 am

Zackary A. Brodowski, 32, a California man is accused of killing his half-brother.

Police found 36-year-old Aaron Richard Rivera dead from apparent gunshot wounds

Police further alleged that Brodowski left the stove's gas burners on while Rivera's two juvenile children slept inside.

With no clear information on the motive behind his actions, Zackary Brodowski is currently facing dire charges of both murder and attempted murder. He is being held without bail at West Valley Detention Center. Since there were juvenile children involved in his sinister plans, it has raised more concerns and alarm about the kind of crime that has taken place. In fact, using an open gas stove as a potential weapon against children is considered nothing less than an attempt at child endangerment.
