Hello dear citizens of HF. As u all know we are about to start fresh with a new year coming in less than a day or two from now. And as we wrap things up I would like to hear from community once again about their biggest achievements this year. Have u done smth in this 365 day calendar that turned ur life 180 degrees? Or were there beginnings set that now promise a bigger future ahead? Or vice versa there were things that u wished didnt happen?

Would love to hear about ur experiences. Happy day to yall

???????

I got my illness under control which I had been battling for nearly 2 years now. It has helped me get my mental health back.

After overcoming that I notice that I have become more resilient.

First in the family to get an Associates Degree, I wish I didn't have to go to court in a few months...

For me I would have to say getting into reselling. It pays so well for doing basically nothing.
