Thread: 500 Completed Contracts – Thank You, HF!

jcole - January 1, 2026, 8:11 am

Recently I reached a milestone on-site for me. I have 500 contracts completed, and all of them are Booyah rated. Today marks a significant day for my business here on HackForums. I'm heading into the new year with 500 completed on-site contracts.

When I first started in the Marketplace, I knew that building trust was the most important currency. 500 successful deals later, I'm incredibly grateful for the platform Omni has built, staff maintain, and the contract system that keeps us all safe.

A huge thank you to:

My Clients: Thank you for trusting me with your business. Many of you have become regulars, and I truly value those relationships.

The Staff: For maintaining a marketplace where legitimate business can thrive.

The Community: For the feedback and support that helped me improve my services.

Here's to the next 500! If we haven't worked together yet, I look forward to seeing you in my PMs.

Well done mate. Congratulations on the achievement

Hazii - January 28, 2026, 9:08 am

Good job JCole! One day I will use you as a middleman, for sure ;)

Lefty - January 28, 2026, 4:01 pm

Damn thats a lot. Congratulations

TrackPro+ - January 29, 2026, 9:01 am

Congratulations! Wishing you many more success and clients.

Congrats on the milestone! I knew we did a good amount of deals in the past and so was curious to see just how many of the 500 contracts were with me. Came to find that it was 78 of them and out of all of those deals as well as general interactions from such, I don't have a single complaint or bad thing to say. Always a pleasure doing business with you. Congrats again on the 500 contracts and I look forward to seeing you hit the big 1k some day!
