Thread: Petition: Rename Stanley to Flips Whitefudge

?Border?ineExtr(A) - January 2, 2026, 2:56 pm

Since a lot of change is happening around the world, and expected on HF, I'm officially kickstarting off 2026 with a formal quorum request: Changing the name of our dear soulless byte-holder robot Stanley into a more agreeable moniker, like, for example, Flips Whitefudge.

This way, once a flip goes in the red, you can flip a finger at Flips. We could also coin a term for this specific situation - DoubleFlipping. ?

Yay, nay, ARRR -> vote in the poll, Stanley's unberarable and has to go.

No , i love stanley and will not allow anyone to say a word about him
Love you stanley ?

Terry A. Davis - January 3, 2026, 5:06 pm

Fuck Stanley.

We should be able to take loans against him to bet more.

RangoWorld - January 3, 2026, 11:00 pm

That is a good name but Stanley is a household name.

Spore - January 3, 2026, 11:01 pm

i voted for flips whitefudge for the luls
but stanley is love, stanley is life

larry2k - January 4, 2026, 2:13 am

What type of name is that ???

Whitechoco - January 13, 2026, 6:04 am

Hell no.

Stanley forever.

Don't even THINK about replacing Stanley.

He may run our pockets everyday, we all love him.

Got a bounty on his head. He won't last long.

Slyz - January 13, 2026, 7:54 am

i hate stanley def should rename

HerrWinston - January 13, 2026, 9:18 am

As much as I hate the fact stanley made me bankrupt more then once by now, I still love the name, but he should see this as a reminder to give some more bytes to the poor.

Everytime my flip goes in the red, we start versing:

We tried the easy way out. All that's left is shoving a .9 caliber to the temples.

Than*

Oddsetting & coin tossing aren't bound to be profitable as a vehicular investment, rather the challenge of seeing real-time determinate balance fluctuations through a binary W/L should get a gamblers ventricular aorta pumpin'

I fully agree and back this statement and am willing to pay for the deed pole.
