I have completed all the requirements for the contest, but the real question is, is this a real contest? It says the contest ends on the 27th, the op was last on the site on the 27th, and has not announced a winner. Another fake giveaway?

Leave a comment ?You better get a staff member to roll random.org for a winner and pay up, or you WILL lose your account.

Contests to scam bytes don't work and I just hope you idiots don't make us lose contests.

You should check up also user "i am" contest, guys are milking some popularity and bytes and not even planning to end or pay out.

He hasn't been online in almost 2 days hope he comes back tho

Motusora would you remove your neg rep from user since it's not fake please?

Omniscient - February 1, 2026, 11:40 am

If SocialSolutions doesn't choose winner within 24 hours then I will do so. I have the SOL.

The user took multiple days to get online and send Omni the $15. Omni gave him another 48 hours to pick a winner and OP still didn't do that.

Fulfilling a giveaway shouldn't involve the admin of the site getting involved.
