Thread: Hows 2026 treating you so far?

Yanix - January 19, 2026, 5:52 am

I wonder how's everyone this 2026? Has it been kind, more of challenges or a mix of both?

What are the wins you're proud of and the challenges you're learning from?

This year is still young and every day feels like a new page and a new challenge. Maybe a good time to reflect on our experiences and the lessons we are gaining along the way.

Feel free to share your journey, as your story may encourage and inspire others.

Sorry to hear that brother. Sometimes seasons like this can feel heavy. The good thing is that you're still here, still trying and that already says a lot. I truly hope things start getting better for you soon. God bless you.

Having a good one in some parallel dimensions out there somewhere I'm sure

Was referring to myself up there

Sorry to hear my G

Im considering January as my trial month for 2026 , as i havent done anything productive so far lol

HerrWinston - January 19, 2026, 1:34 pm

Nothing too special happened yet, I took the first week as a break from stress and now back on learning and studying once again, hopefully the next few months will prove that this year will be MY year!

Wish you the best aswell brother

Deany - January 19, 2026, 4:11 pm

Currently, pretty bad. I resell stuff, and so far sale been down hard. Hope it picks up asap

Oh yeah, that's a great way to look at it. January can be the warm-up round for most of us and we still have plenty of time ahead. I hope the rest of the year treats you much better.?

Sounds like a solid reset and a strong mindset, brother. Taking time to rest and then getting back to learning is already a win. I hope 2026 turns out to be your year. Best of luck brotha. Keep safe.

Bbw suga - January 19, 2026, 8:36 pm

Got to be honest, My January aint half bad, I pray I get more resources and remote work and the year only gets better and to everyone struggling out there, it's only a phase, it'll only get better, keep your heads up

The start of the year was really good. I was progressing towards my goals as fast as I have ever progressed.

Though this week I caught common cold and flu so that has certainly slowed me down. But I've almost recovered am ready to go hard again.

Aside from all this I think life overall has been kind to me and I wish for it to stay that way for everyone.

J?son - January 20, 2026, 10:38 pm today is 1/21/2026 and i am up currently $120k already this physical year.

Colds and flu are everywhere lately because of the cold weather, so you're definitely not alone, actually I do have colds and flu at this moment. The important thing is you're almost fully recovered and ready to move again. Now it's time to get back to those goals like nothing happened.

Thank you so much for this nice words my man .Hope both of us we will have a great year

Hackers - January 22, 2026, 8:34 am

Pretty good year overall so far, excited for things that are coming up. Planning on 2026 being a fantastic year overall for health, happiness, and investments.

Seems like a solid start

TheEmeraldSerpent - January 22, 2026, 9:36 am

Not too shabby. I'm getting ready to move and that's a little stressful but other than that it's not too bad :3

Oh wow, brother that really does sound like a strong start to the year. Focusing on health, happiness and investments is such a smart and balanced approach. If you keep this momentum, 2026 is shaping up to be something special. Hope the rest of the year exceeds your expectations.

JoseMar - January 22, 2026, 9:57 pm

To be honest, to my surprise, it's actually going really well so far, I didn't expect that. Hopefully it stays like this from now on. Cheers, mate!?

I am happy for you brother, It's great when life quietly starts working out better than expected. Hope this positive streak keeps going strong for you. God bless ?

DarkVision - January 22, 2026, 11:51 pm

Well, so far in 2026, there have been nothing but aggravated health problems, unfortunately. I hope things turn around and my health improves this year, and I wish the same for everyone else. Hopefully I will be able to return to the gym as soon as possible.

Health is everything.

You're one of the kindest members on HF. I will throw 300 bytes at you now. ?

Oh no, I'm sorry you're going through that brother. I hope your health turns around soon. You're right, nothing matters more than feeling well.

Me and family are not feeling well the past days because of colds and flu.

Sending you good wishes for recovery and better days ahead. Keep safe and God bless.

Out of all years I've been a part of, it certainly is one of the 23rd days into it of all time.

Oh yeah can confirm, we are indeed 23 days into a year. Hoping the plot improves to most of us. Let's see what the next episodes bring. ?

Cosa Nostra - January 25, 2026, 1:03 am

For me, 2026's been more of a mix. Personal stuff has kept me busy, but money wise things are going pretty well.

Biggest win so far is just staying consistent with my goals and learning new skills, even when things get hectic. Biggest challenge has been juggling everything without burning out, but I'm learning to manage it better each day.

Feels like every day really is a new page and I decide if it is going to be a good Page or a bad one.

That's the kind of balance most people are trying to figure out, so you're already ahead. Consistency, growth and self-awareness is a strong trio. Sounds like you're writing a pretty solid story for 2026 so far. Keep it up brother.?

DemonAsylum - January 30, 2026, 11:47 pm

January has been a bit of a tougher and busier month on my end, but it has also seemed to go by quick so I guess that's the plus side to it all. All things considered though, I can't complain. Gotta be able to recognize how much worse off we could be and feel gratitude for all that we're lucky enough to have. I hope things have been going well for everyone so far and or that they get better if things have been any bit rough.

That's a good mindset to have brother, even when things get busy or challenging. Recognizing the positives and being grateful really helps keep things in perspective. Hopefully the coming days are a bit easier for you and treat you well.?

2026 has so far been a good year both personally, and business wise for me. I've been fortunate enough to be a part of some good business opportunities that I wasn't anticipating last year. Having good colleagues and business contacts, is always a rewarding experience.

I'm currently drinking some freshly squeezed orange juice, and enjoying a marijuana vape that one of my partners dropped off earlier. The year is still young, and I have a bunch of things that I would like to get done this year.. just not enough time in the day to get it all done. Would be nice if we had 36 hours in a day.

I'm also a firm believer in karma.. you get back, what you put into this world. You put forth good work ethic, and constructive effort into the things you're doing.. and in return, you get rewarded with the fruits of your labor. You sit back, goofing off all day and expecting that somehow things will be handed to you.. you end up sitting on the sidelines, stressed and depressed with nothing to show for it. Have to be mindful of which path you choose to take in life.

I'm looking forward to see what else 2026 has to offer.

That sounds really great, 2026 has started off really well for you brother, both personally and business-wise. It's great when hard work and good people come together, and hopefully the rest of the year keeps that momentum going.

Oh yeah, those years changed the rhythm of life for a lot of people and it can feel like things never fully reset. Hopefully even small changes start showing up for you soon, because progress doesn't always arrive all at once. Best of luck brother.

This year has been a struggle thus far. But I went and got myself a puppy for Xmas :D

So that has made it a bit more worth it to suffer. But it is only the start of the year. So I will stay hopeful for the rest of the year.

Oh brother, that sounds like a tough start, but getting a puppy is a pretty great bright spot. They have a way of making the hard days feel lighter without even trying. Hoping the rest of the year brings more good moments to go along with all those puppy smiles.?
