Lot's of cool stuff being happening IRL! Barely get to come on HF anymore.

How you guys been doing? There's probably way too much that's happened for anyone to fill me in but....

What's the best new award in your opinion?

Motusora - January 23, 2026, 8:09 pm

how are you mate?

Yanix - January 23, 2026, 8:40 pm

Welcome back to the community and hoping you will be staying good. Flip Reaper or Stanley Fan would be a cool award to have.

Hello welcome back. Have a nice Saturday!

You mean the HF 18 Cake award right? Maybe you can reach out to Omni so you might be able to purchase one.

Nice to see you doing great bro, proud of your success! Your consistency and work ethic has paid off and that's very respectable!

I've been taking some years off work, traveling a little, and trying to figure out what I'm doing next, while surviving off some decent passive income :D

You can check on those free awards on your Award goals section <https://hackforums.net/awardgoals.php> wherein you can grind them for free.
