Thread: Free GFX requests for GFX scam victims.

P??sonl?af - January 29, 2026, 4:10 am

Hello there,

If you are an official scam victim, meaning you have a contract & deal dispute open here and it involves any GFX I'm willing to provide free GFX work to compensate your loss.

Be sure to reply or contact me with your open deal dispute and I'm sure we can work something out.

This is a service to help the community. I will always reserve the right to deny your request. Any abuse will NOT be tolerated.

For any other GFX related request please visit my thread

Beautiful gesture and contribution intend for the community.

I don't need any graphics or have disputes. But just wanted to write this and bump this thread.

This is a very humble gesture and truly inspiring.

When I was active I took on gigs for community events and fundraisers that were for a good cause, and I never charge them for it.
