Thread: What's your biggest addiction that you want to quit?

I think everyone got a vice, who from money, who from drugs and who from porn (etc)
I was addicted to weed for at least 3 years and I was really not OK with it, I hated and loved it because my personality really doesn't fit the effects. I was too lazy, I had mind fog and I had anxiety issues. Since I quit I had problems with tobacco, the majority of people accepts it but I really hate it too.

Have you ever had similar problems?

p.s about smoking, there is a book called "Easy way to stop smoking" by Allen Carr that if you want to smoke, I'd give it a a try.

Probably playing the HF sportsbook. Too much fun to quit, though.

Drinking beer / booze. Read here: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6288842>

Have not drank since this happened and every time I think of drinking I seem to only remember the ER and feeling like death for over a year after the incident.

Maybe drinking or smoking weed, but then life would seem boring I think.
