Would you ever be interested in joining or applying to an intelligence agency like the CIA?

laksor - February 21, 2026, 12:28 am

100% I love invading people's privacy for some reason

RangoWorld - February 21, 2026, 12:53 am

Why? Have you got an offer? Hahaha.

I would consider joining only if the package was very lucrative. I wouldn't do it for the interest or nation interest sake.

7 - February 21, 2026, 1:36 am

Depends on the agency and the country

Thalion - February 21, 2026, 5:19 am

Absolutely not! ?

That would involve participating in upholding the current system with corporate fascism and the power abuse that goes along with it. Being "somewhat" of a libertarian-minded person, it would be like selling my soul. ?

DAL-SHA - February 21, 2026, 7:08 am

Depends on the offer , what I can and I cant , what I'm allowed to do and what not ! Never ever thought of it !

No offer. What about 100K? What about 200K? Would you work for your enemy for 500k?

Okay Fuck, Marry, Kill:

- Mossad
- CIA
- FSB

Go!

I can't tell if I'd be better off killing or fucking mossad or FSB, but I'll marry CIA.

What if the intelligence agency you join operates outside the normal functions & budgets of the public government?

(Hint: they do)

Would you join if you felt you could change the world without dealing with the red tape bullshit of politics?

What about 80k but you can't use violence, vs 150K and you have support in military ops, or 250K but if you get caught your gov won't acknowledge you exist ?

I have dreams of working for the CIA, Seems like the best one to work for, the FBI seems like a pain in the ass, but the CIA seems cool!

My X-Uncle-In Law worked for the CIA, From my knowledge he worshipped Satan and had connections to the dark forces of the universe. He claimed himself to be the Prince of Darkness, maybe that was his code name. IDK, I was just a kid.

If I had a choice for a job. I would be into drugs and see if we can come up with something better than crack this time around.

bangemsaint - February 22, 2026, 10:30 am

I deff would if the price was right . Im pretty sure id put all moral standards to the side

Omega Sapient - February 22, 2026, 7:51 pm

I'm pretty sure the CIA tells its applicants not to express that they have an interest in joining the CIA to anyone at least while the application process is ongoing. I think I remember it saying that the few times that I actually applied. LOL

AiDenti - February 22, 2026, 9:54 pm

I would never pass the background check.

I might be willing to work as an office worker otherwise. I won't be acquiring assets.

RiveR29 - February 23, 2026, 4:24 am

I mean it would be wild. I am fairly certain that I would not get past the physical tests.

But it would be so damn awesome to be part of something like MI5/6, CIA, etc. The amount of dad lore I could get from that.

You see how many users are commenting in here that they wouldnt join but are secret HF feds :D

sudowoodoking - February 24, 2026, 5:47 am

Depends on the offer. Lol.

HALx86 - February 24, 2026, 8:44 pm

I wouldn't be interested in working with CIA/MI6. The whole idea of manipulating other humans is not interesting to me. If I could find a strictly programming or technical job, maybe.

I didn't want to be rude and say anything of that manner especially as a newcomer but I have been secretly wondering how many here are monitoring for investigative purposes. I'm not trying to be disrespectful or anything like that in fact I'm jealous I want to be a cyber spy too! Lol. Keep up the good work secret HF feds ???
