Thread: How easy do you Handle a loss ?

DAL-SHA - February 28, 2026, 7:19 am

Hi There !

Just like the title says : How much it affect you when you take a loss ??

Allow me to Elaborate more :

- 1) Financial loss : easiest kind of loss for me , I've always been optimistic about money , I know what I'm capable of providing and doing ..
- 2) Grief on a dear lost person to sickness or accident etc., : I'm not an emotional person but usually I don't grieve on lost person unless he/she is really dear and means something to me !
- 3) Loss of opportunity : I've been there , it has moderate kind of affection on me ! Because I've seen some opportunities that changed some people lives !
- 4) Loss of identity : The hardest one for me , to not know where are you heading in life or fearing from the future and not know who you are (just a number like 100s of millions of people) is something unfathomable for me !

Can you think of a loss I didn't mention above ?

Tell me what do you think in the comments guys !

I think I find it very easy most of the time. I understand the mistakes I made and only try to improve.

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. The OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley

I can deal with financial loss. It hurts during the initial period but then you gotta remind yourself that you win some and lose some and that you have to focus on your life and your goals. There will be big gains if you continue down your path for a better life.
