What do you think of lofi / chill music like this?

MadScientist - February 25, 2026, 6:54 pm

Havent listened to yours yet in a zoom class but LOFI is great for late night chilling / reading / relaxing for me

This isn't my video, just a random one that came on after I listened to something else from HF convo

i have generated 8 songs so far since posting this thread though lol, so I will share soon :)

It's only 5 credits per song and I still have over 2300 credits from when I bought them months ago lol

Wait, isn't that your video? Isn't that your music? But... do you have your own music made by you? Like as a producer or something? Do you have a SoundCloud profile?

we chatted in convo, but this song in this thread above is not mine just to clarify :)

for other people wondering, my YT is here:

Most songs as of today are in Shorts due to video format:

I'll post this up in a new thread later this week probably, or a similar one, but here are 12 songs I generated today.

This next video IS mine:
