Thread: Personal Steam Account \(9.5 years\) - 201 Games w/ Many DLC - No Vac/Game Bans! Clean!

WritersBlock - February 25, 2026, 10:32 pm

I have been trying to sell this account off and on for a few years (You can check my thread posts) but haven't really accepted any offers. I recently got decided to go back into college after an educational break and decided that gaming isn't in my best interest anymore.

This is my personal steam account, for the last 9.5 years. Clean, no bans, with 201 games and many DLC.

I am doing a full transfer into your information, including changing phone number on account, email, name, password, and anything else that would make you comfortable for the sale including streaming screen on discord.

If you're are just wanting a fast sale 5 minute transfer, this likely isn't for you. I'm looking for someone to take care of this account and genuinely want to work with me while I transfer off my 2FA Steam Guard. Person should be based in the USA so steam doesn't find anything suspicious with login. This also comes with an UBISOFT CONNECT account so you can play linked games with Ubisoft Connect.

Payments:

Crypto is preferred because of charge-back scams, either BTC, ETH, or LTC. May also accept Doge depending on buyer.

Paypal might be accepted under extreme circumstances of a highly credible buyer due to charge-back risk.
