? Mortal Kombat II

I just found the new trailer for Mortal Kombat 2. I have always been a huge fan of the movie franchise though ironically I don't care for the games. The combinations are too complex for my gaming style.

Do you guys like Mortal Kombat? What do you think of the trailer? At first glance I thought it was a superhero movie and was labeled incorrectly. After that I thought it looked decent though.

IMHO They butchered the video game series and mortal kombat 2 was one of the most anticipated SNES games I ever wanted in my life. I remember the feeling of day 1 playing mk2 on my SNES. My brother and I used to tow on a bike 20 MILES JUST TO PLAY THE COIN OP back in the 90's.

Every movie or TV show that's been based on a video game sucks, IMO.

Yeah, the best we get is a few TV shows here and there. Its just lost revenue really.

I hope this movie is good tho.
