Thread: What is your favorite award on Hackforums?

What is your favorite award that you own, or want to own?

My favorite award would have to be the Dog Lover award.

I have been a fan of dogs my whole life. Currently, I have no dog of my own, with no plans on one with how busy my life is, but I volunteer at the shelter all the time.

The soon to be 20-year award.

King of Decade takes the cake, probably because I have it, dark border around the skull is nice.

I would say that I truly love the GOAT award, and as a close second, the King of Decade award as well. These awards highlight users' consistency and long-term commitment, showing how actively engaged members are within the forum.

My favorite one is the Businessman award. Got it the hard way i.e. don't have a ton of byte buying contracts.
