Hi Everyone,

Bro, honest question... bike or car for life? And don't say both ?.

For Me !!!!!

Its Bike

What about you ?

Definitely car. I don't prefer vehicles that lack a roof, walls and a floor.

I mean here where I live we can't ride bikes for 6 to 8 months straight. So I will have to say Car.

But I do also love riding my bikes. Motorcycles and just Bicycles.

So yea bit hard to say just Car, but it is what it is.

Both are nice in their own respects to be honest. If you are looking for adventure type experience then bikes are the best
