(Mar 7, 2026 11:03 AM)Omniscient Wrote: CITE I want in. BTW, are you sure the riddle is AI proof?

Your ofc more than welcome.

As for being AI proof, the riddles are slightly vague simple riddles meaning there are a few possible answers usually.

Each day the user receives a new riddle. Really the time it takes them to get the first answer isn't important but on the twelve day... this is where the real speed of cracking the seed happens. I suggest to most users to pick a couple of answers for each riddle.

I don't think I can make it completely AI proof but im sure AI can be useful in suggesting a few answers each riddle could be.

7 - March 26, 2026, 9:28 am

Today's riddle has been sent out to everyone..

As from tomorrow everything will get harder. But like explained.. the contestants get the riddle on time. But the day after, I will release to the whole forum.

----- IMPORTANT -----

Do not answer in the thread or ask me if it's right. Also this is a seed phrase for Phantom Wallet. No crying, first one in and out with the money wins..

Yesterdays Riddle:

I don't have wings, but I help you rise.

A little push can change your size.

In games or life, I give you speed—

What am I when you need a lead?

Today's will be released to everyone tomorrow.. only the contestants get 24hrs ahead. Anyone who breaks this will ruin this competition ...

And from tomorrow it gets more complicated thanks to Omniscient for guidance.

I have tried with some words but it's really difficult. The riddles are such that answer could be among many words for some.

Also by revealing Blockchain address. Wouldn't it make it easier to just bruteforce it offline until you hit the right combo?

No, that's not how knowing the SOL address works. You'd have to take the entire SOL blockchain offline to achieve this. Knowing the address should do nothing other than allow us to see the balance.

is the most creative I have seen on HF so far. I was in fact one word off once again.

Congrats Three once again!

Thank you.

I look forward to running it again in a couple of weeks.

That's good to hear. I will definitely try to be on for the next one as well. This was fun figuring it out. Specially with how tight it gets in the end.

I know we had some momentum break in the middle. But still this was very professional well done. Props to you!

I found wallet. I sent coin to my own SOL address.

Congrats.

Also I wish 7 had posted the wallet address so that we would know.

Any chance of publishing the seed in full? No reason not to really.

Also granting Three an award for the achievement.

This award looks great on my profile. Thank you.

Hope 7 doesn't mind but here is the full set of riddles and seed word solutions in one post.

1: boost

I don't have wings, but I help you rise.
A little push can change your size.
In games or life, I give you speed—
What am I when you need a lead?

2: pill

Small and round, yet full of might,
I help you heal or sleep at night.
Swallowed quick, I disappear—
What am I that doctors cheer?

3: midnight

When silence is deepest and time feels still,
The darkest moment, beyond all will.
Not a phrase — reduce it to one.

4: garden

Behind the home or out in the green,
A place to grow what must be seen.
Not the space — but what it becomes.

5: truck

Heavy and long, it moves the load,
Called something different across the road.
Translate it back.

6: knock

A small sound made upon a door,
Not loud, just asking for more.
Make it firmer.

7: camp

No walls, no roof, just open air,
A place you rest without a care.
Strip it down.

8: amazing

Beyond belief, too good to be true,
A word you say when something shocks you.
Make it more common.

9: oven

Heat contained, where raw is changed,

Used for cooking, but don't be vague.
Not on top — but where it's enclosed.

10: spell

Words that twist reality's thread,
Spoken softly, feared or read.
Shorten the magic.

11: drill

I cut without teeth, I dig without claw,
Through wood or stone, I follow the law.
The action reveals the tool.

12: lady

Grace or strength, both can apply,
A respectful word, no need to try.
Refine the title.
