Thread: [\[\$10,000 a Month\] Worldwide Mentoring program Join the team!](#)

StunnHit - March 8, 2026, 11:40 am

I'm offering 1-on-1 mentoring where I'll teach you a method that can realistically bring in around $400 per day once you understand how it works.

This is only complicated to stumble on, but no to work on, it doesn't require technical skills. If you can browse a forum and follow instructions, you're capable of doing this. The only things you actually need are:

- A PC (this cannot be done properly from a phone)
- Around 3 hours per day
- The willingness to learn and apply the steps

During the mentoring, I'll walk you through the full setup, the tools involved, and how everything connects together. The mentoring itself only takes a few hours, but by the end you'll understand how to run the system on your own.

Why listen to me?

I've made around $78,000 with this method over roughly 8 months.

I still hold $37k from it and can show it live on Discord before you buy.

For some people with high-paying jobs this might not seem like a huge amount for how long it took, but this method genuinely changed my life. It allowed me to buy an SUV I never thought I'd be able to afford, and I'm now on track to buy my first house soon / all while still keeping my IRL job.

I've come a long way from the days when I was e-whoring and using my body just to pay the bills.

Requirements

There are no real entry requirements.

If you can browse a forum, you can do this.

- Any country
- Any age
- No experience required

The only rule: don't expect to half-ass this from a phone. You need a PC and about 3 hours a day, which most people already spend doom-scrolling anyway.

Price

The full mentoring price is $4,000.

I know that's not cheap and that people here who can afford it are rare, so I'm offering a payment plan:

- $600 upfront
- 1/3 of the profits you make during the first month
- Any remaining balance is paid after the first month

And for anyone thinking about double-crossing me / let me be clear: you'll need my support along the way. Not holding up your end of the deal will only hurt your own profits in the long run.

?Special Discount?

I'm offering a one-time 50% discount for someone who is highly experienced with automation, so we can potentially work together to make it autopilot.

You'll need to prove your experience with past projects.

Why this deal is actually high-quality

- We both make money
- The method is extremely niche
- It's not something that's widely known or saturated
- Profit is straightforward — you do the work, you get paid
- No long delays, no complicated verification processes

If you buy this and you've already done this exact method before or seriously considered it, I'll refund you instantly and send you $1,000 for wasting your time.

That's how confident I am in how unique this is.

Interested?

If you think you're a good fit:

- Start a contract
- Send me a PM
- Start a conversation
- Or post here and I'll PM you

I'm only taking 3 people, mainly to keep it small so I can actually help each person properly.

First come, first served.

Goodluck with sales. For both parties I strongly recommend a good detailed contract and one of the many free middleman services here.

Hi. Is this BH? Nothing about ewhoring, p0rn, etc?

Selling physical or digital items? Services?

Thanks

Squints - March 9, 2026, 6:41 pm

I am software/data engineer and can done a lot of automation over the years.

I'm interested in the 50% discount, shoot me a pm to talk about the some of the technical requirements.

Only other questions I have are:

- is it around ewhoring?
- is it white hat?

Quick review after i got the discounted copy, this method is worth it, even at full price. Stunn is a wonderful person before being a great mentor and the numbers she promised are not just marketing bait

I'm working on the fully autonomous version that she plans to share with everyone involved once it's operational

As for the method itself, i have nothing to say, it's not much effort for the money it makes, it works and it's not some recycled nonsense where the creator only makes money from selling the method and the payment plan isn't aggressive, so you won't feel like a slave. She's playing the long game

Discount spot is no longer available.

Interested in learning more...on EST so headed to sleep. Please message me contact info. Thanks.

DragonDays - March 11, 2026, 7:39 am

Is there much social interaction to do this? Is there any convincing people to buy something?

Neo0007 - March 11, 2026, 9:27 pm

@StunnHit

I am very interested and have a couple questions. Could you PM me so we can discuss further.

Thank you.

Review:

Paid $600 to start the training...had a death in the family which held me up a week.

Started the training and lost $800 in btc due to wallet mix up(won't elaborate to reveal method).

OP said he would make it right and front the money and I would pay it back in 2 days on Sunday night...and he went silent.

OP ghosted me over the past 36 hours but has been seen online. I either want a refund of the or continuation of training it's that simple.

Will update if things change.

MODs can contact me for more info if needed.

You should contact a staff instead because you have no contract with this seller. It might be tricky.

And to every other people out there, do not buy from this seller.

Last week he declined using MM when I asked in convo.

Anchosteam - March 29, 2026, 6:47 pm

Update:

Seller returned after 6 days away...never communicated he was leaving but at least he has reappeared.

We're going to resume training after we work a couple things out. Will update as I move along.
