The Best PS5 Deals This Week: Save On RPGs, Preowned Games, And Accessories - March

This is an interesting week for PS5 deals. A lot of PS5 games are getting new price cuts, including generous discounts for Final Fantasy Tactics: The Ivalice Chronicles and Dragon Quest III HD-2D Remake. And if you'd like to save even more cash, GameFly is running a preowned sale that further slashes prices on some of the best games of the past few years. However, some events that have been running for weeks are drying up, limiting the number of accessories on sale, and stocks are running low for at least one popular PS5 console bundle. But if you need a cheap game, controller, or headset, there are plenty of fantastic options available right now. Here's a look at the best PS5 deals for the week of March 9 - 13, 2026, including price cuts on games, accessories, and consoles. Best PS5 Game Deals Code Vein 2 is available for $60.15 (was $70), which is its lowest price since launching in January. Though it earned mixed reviews, it offers intense boss fights, a unique combat system, and plenty of endearing moments with its memorable cast of characters. If you're a fan of souls-likes, be sure to check it out. Continue Reading at GameSpot
