Thread: Anyone see Mr.Beasts X Post

SoulZeh - March 16, 2026, 12:15 am

So I woke up with a message from someone on discord with a Mr Beast post, surely this isn't legit?

I mean I've registered with a silly email and tried the promo code and have the 2500 in my wallet, but I surely shouldn't withdraw.

IDK - March 16, 2026, 12:24 am

This look like a fake post.

Yea, even signing up on the website and doing the code works, seems sus a heck lol, I have the balance and everything, you don't need to type anything in other than email, but to withdraw you obviously need your bank details.

DemonAsylum - March 16, 2026, 12:35 am

Obvious scam that has been making the rounds for quite a while. I've had it messaged to me from random people I share a server with a number of times. I've also seen it spammed across a bunch of channels in servers before. I assume those with access to tons of accounts whether via botting and or token stealing are just having them all do the above in attempt to hook people.

Scam <https://www.scam-detector.com/validator/...in-review/>

Good thing that banks need more to authorize a transfer than just an account number.

Rahul007rhp - March 16, 2026, 12:59 am

Seems like scam post , these types of scam are all over social media these days

SoulZeh - March 16, 2026, 1:11 am

Yea, I mean, If I get to spend the balance I will, but I won't obviously add my bank info, lol

Well the token isn't listed on coinmarketcap or any other coin listing platform.

RangoWorld - March 16, 2026, 1:36 am

Sounds like a scam. Maybe the account was hacked?

The website doesn't work either. There's nothing on the domain.

How would it be either? It was legit posted via his X and I've had couple messages saying about it, thought I'd share?

Obviously don't do it, as it's a load of bullshit. Was interesting to see that it was posted on his X.

StuffSneak - March 16, 2026, 4:38 am

Looks like his account got compromised somehow.

I was thinking the same thing. I checked this morning and the post was already gone.

Still wild it was on his page.

Unpopular opinion.

- Let them scam you
- Wait until MrBeast team takes it down
- Message them that you got scammed because you trust MrBeast and ask for compensation
- Get your money back ++ something extra from MrBeast for the inconvenience.

Good take on it G have a nice day

Deany - March 16, 2026, 1:12 pm

Um yeah I wouldn't trust anything these "influencers" post period.

?inimalist - March 16, 2026, 1:40 pm

This has happened many times over the years with different celebrities. There was even a scandal in the past where some "influencers" and famous artists claimed that their accounts had been hacked after posting scam promotions. In reality it later came out that some of them had actually been paid to promote those scams. After they come out and apologize saying that their accounts or passwords had been hacked.

5chn4pp - March 16, 2026, 1:57 pm

Do not under any circumstances try to withdraw those coins.

I am assuming you received ERC-20 based tokens.

ERC-20 tokens have very specific and hidden draining methods in the contract when you try to withdraw. Don't touch them.

shadylee54 - March 16, 2026, 3:02 pm who is mr beast ?

Oh don't worry, I've not done anything, I wouldn't ever put my bank details or anything like that.

Not sure if bait. It's a scam.

HerrWinston - March 18, 2026, 9:10 am

Hey there, so I find it awesome to see this right now and maybe I will make a thread debunking this and other scam methods sooner or later aswell BUT I will give you a short summary on how this works friend! So you and everyone interested or unknowing gets a feeling for this ^^

These Websites are an obvious scam, lets break it down together!

This scheme with fake online casinos isnt just a discord thing, they post everywhere, X, Tiktok, Instagram they DM whoever is possible or make posts about this

-> Conclusion: This is not just a small niche, this is BIG

Take a look into the website:

The source code tells us exactly how this scheme works, they give you the money and ask about 7 times for you to deposit some money to get the refunds, they also tell you to play a little with it to accumulate up to 3500$ out of seemingly thin air, as a dumb person you dont care, you gladly deposit up to 3k because in the end, you will get a free 3500$ check out of it no?

No ofc not!

The last error message is literally hardcoded in there, you wont ever receive anything.

These websites exist in MASSES like hundreds upon hundreds of them, not just mr beast either, messi, popular sports people and so on even Ninja from fortnite.

Now, you may wonder, how do they get these accounts? You dont have to enter your discord account anywhere, so there shouldnt be a problem right? NO!

We are in HF so some will already have come to this conclusion by now: Stealer Logs!

In the youth for example, many install "minecraft, gta, roblox cheats or mod menus" or pirated games from weird places, these most likely contain stealers, who get all the information available on PC and extort them, then these people sell these stealer logs or use them for themselves, which they get paid for or do "weird" things with.

Cyber crime like this feels organized, because people specialised themselves, its like in real life with supply chains and demand.

They will buy Stealer Logs from questionable places with all these informations in there, like Discord Tokens, which make it WAY easier aswell send it out there and hope dumb people fall for it and now the worst part.

IT WORKS

There are atleast 500 websites like this online, so many people sending messages like this, some people MUST fall for it, because somehow all of this gotta be paid, unfortunate how some people have likely invested up to 5k in hopes of getting money, unfortunate but at the end it's their own fault, it was obvious from the start.
