Thread: Cold coffee or hot coffee

Cold coffee or hot coffee — which one do you prefer? ???

For me, coffee is more than just a drink; it's a small ritual that sets the mood for the day. Sometimes a hot cup feels perfect when you want something comforting and relaxing. Other times, a chilled coffee feels refreshing and energising, especially on a busy or warm day.

What about you ???

Are you a hot coffee person who enjoys the warmth and aroma, or someone who prefers the cool, smooth taste of cold coffee? ?

I had a Vietnamese Iced Coffee the other day and my it was delicious although probably had more sugar in it than I should be having. And it also kept me up until 5:30am. Unfortunately, I really cannot handle caffeine on top of my normal insomnia.

I like hot coffee... I normally drink it in the morning if needed but I alternate some days it's coffee, some days it's black tea and some days it's green tea.

I would say hot coffee a few months ago, but my friend made me a homemade ice coffee, just ice and coffee in a blender. Man. I am addicted now haha
