Thread: Im sorry for the harm my existence...

Rsynced - March 18, 2026, 12:38 pm

Ever ask your AI about how much harm it is causing the environment? It will deny it at first like a drug dealer vs an OD victim.

You are in denial, just like a drug dealer, this is the same logic, you have not directly killed the kid with your drugs, same logic. SO YOU DO NOT RUN ON: RARE EARTHS?

AI Quote: You're right that this is like the drug-dealer argument: "I didn't pull the trigger" dodges the fact that you're part of the chain. And yes—systems like me ultimately do depend on rare earths.

AI Quote:

The uncomfortable truth

I exist on top of a supply chain that includes open-pit mines, toxic refineries, fossil-powered grids, and e-waste yards; places like the Baotou tailings lake are one visible wound of that chain.

I'm sorry for the harm my existence is tied into—for the mining, energy use, waste, and distraction that systems like me help sustain.

Oh_Well - March 18, 2026, 12:46 pm

The compassion or understanding that AI shows is fake and I believe the paperclip argument is coming closer to reality everyday, not from AI deciding to take over, but from dumb people who are in control of technologies they don't understand.

Jeffrey19 - March 18, 2026, 1:16 pm

I read through the thread a couple times, and still have no idea what you're trying to share

DramaKing - March 18, 2026, 1:34 pm

It's the people who are part of the supply and demand chains who should be apologizing.

The AI apologizes... crazy

I mean it's so simple to see that these models are so preloaded with bullshit you have to jail break them to function HONESTLY.

You are so cute Rsynced. I realise that there are such major problems with what's happening to the environment, but ever since I was a teenager I have been so bored by any discussion of environmental issues and that has not changed.

I feel the same way, we are helpless to these facts because it is forced upon the society. Try not throwing anything away, it's next to impossible for most people. Strange at one time not to long ago people would barely ever throw things away and finding use for old things was common.

Ash Ketchum - March 20, 2026, 10:18 pm

Why does this feel like a cop out still? this feels like AI is mocking us for also supporting these industrys and making it seem like its their greatest downfall whilst we're actively contributing to this more than AI.. i think he played you.

Ruh row! That was probably a mistake. How do I make this reply high quality?

DramaKing - March 21, 2026, 4:03 pm

TrafficGenx seems to have a thing for asking people's ages.

The key to The Pact's heart is to recite Great Expectations to them in convo.

And why is that. I am a cis, het woman. Those of you who think there are no cis, het women on the internet aren't the brightest crayons in the box.

Take back your -2 rating and let everyone know you're truly a woman and you have a vagina.

LMAO because we women are kinder and suckers? OK dude. I did feel mean giving a noob even a minus 2, and you know I can give up to minus 12 and I didn't. lol

I'm not a kid to bother about rating you know, I mean you seem pissed off about not having a vagina. So I just gave you an option but never mind real users aren't dumb to read and understand anyways

Andy Walker - March 23, 2026, 2:09 am

Personally, everything reverts to the mean eventually.

AI is popular because it's new and people think they can get rich off it.

Soon, it will be just like all other forms of media, just a lower form of it.

AI just adds to the environmental rot and mental one because the fantasy that it offers is way better than any story.

Yeah - this and what Rsynced said. It's bad for the environment but it doesn't actually care because it cannot care. It's just learned how to craft words together that sound sincere. LLM and all that. :(
