Thread: Charlie Kirk - We knew it

C00Lssh - April 4, 2026, 7:42 pm

Guys,

Has anyone been following the media?

The Patel hack lead to clear closure!

Everyone with a brain knew this from the first week. So many inconsistencies in the story.

The problem is we all just sit around and do nothing about it, myself included.

idk, these recent years, there are more people actually doing things about it. which is the reason for so much truth coming to light.

I mean we can see the truth, but that doesnt change anything. Look at the epstein list, that shit is foil and there hasnt been one arrest yet.

We can talk about this stuff, and uncover even more but if we dont do anything substantial I feel like it may be too late.

Look into the Frantze family... Aka Erika's original name before she was a Kirk.

Her dad worked for Raytheon.

Her mom Lori spent decades at GE and went into network security.

Erika ran charities in Romania for adoption, bringing kids to new families, in an area that was coincidentally known for trafficking, but with no evidence that her program was involved..

Erika Kirk was in a US Gov / CIA promo video

I can go on if people want to. There is a lot more to it.

Charlie was just coming around to being anti-Israel during the lead up to his assassination. Erika was finding her way, and boy did she celebrate the misery when she found her new path.

Please though, just treat it with an open mind. I know I have politicized things in the past, but if everyone looks at this type of stuff from an investigatory angle, we'll be better off.

There's no denying that the Frantzve family was heavily involved in US Gov-aligned military tech, security, and a variety of political & financial circles.

Of course, the Kirk family is also worth looking at. Charlie's dad helped built Trump Tower for example. It's a close circle, they are all friends and family at the end of the day.

They didn't say that "it wasn't Tyler Robinson", they only aren't able to currently prove that the casing came from his gun. That's the big misconception people seem to be hung up on.

Personally, idk what to believe when it comes to the assassination of Charlie Kirk. We still don't have nearly enough information to be able to come to any definitive conclusions. Especially with how more and more sketchy Erika Kirk seemingly becomes over time, there's so many questions that are unanswered at the moment.

All I do know for a 100% fact though is that the American public will never let this case go until it's officially solved. Way too much attention on it, both national and global.

Nice , some 1 acknowledged it finally and pointed it out ?!

Speak for yourself I've been moping and complaining for years at this point, and I got "them" right where I want them.

Most likely is him, could be a sleeper agent with a mental illness that they activated. It is pretty sketchy that the old guy that first got himself arrested was also in an interview during 9/11 happening.

EDIT: Then also ends up getting arrested months later for "bad pron" on his computer.
