Thread: Happy Easter 2026!

jcole - April 5, 2026, 4:22 am

I always try and make a thread on any major holiday. It's becoming like a tradition to me. Happy Easter everyone, and please be safe with your family and friends.

Easter and Thanksgiving my 2 favs time to grub out sharn - April 5, 2026, 7:56 am

Wishing everyone a happy Easter!

Derrick420 - April 5, 2026, 8:52 am

Happy Easter and God Bless!

Ps, Why does the Easter Bunny hide the eggs??? Because no one can know its fucking a chicken!

I hear ya on your reply to my thread, but since it was closed, I'll reply here - my thread was about being pro-love & peace, and following in Jesus' footsteps instead of Satan's. It wasn't political, it was commentary on good vs evil, something I think everyone can agree with on a day like today.

I am not really disagreeing with you though, today is about family & love, so we do agree. I'm only annoyed that the thread got censored / closed by someone else.

My son went out and did a Easter Egg Hunt and he's about to be 4 next week! I'm so thankful to be a little over 5 years clean and I'm doing it for him. Easter was wonderful and I've enjoyed yet another holiday sober and it feels great and genuine unlike when I was getting high ... When I was, Holidays didn't mean nothing and was just another day.

Happy for you. Happy belated easter for all people on HF because it's now 4/21 lol
